BARTTER ENTERPRISES and STEGGLES FOODS PRODUCTS PTY LIMITED NSW OPERATIONS

REDUNDANCY AGREEMENT

1 Scope of Agreement

This Agreement is made between the Company and the Union; and applies to all employees of the Company in New South Wales.

2 Definitions

"All purpose rate" means the rate of pay used to calculate one week's normal pay. The all-purpose rate excludes overtime, but includes penalty rates and shift premiums, and all allowances.

"Casual employees" means an employee who is employed on an hourly basis, and who has no reasonable expectation of regular work. A casual employee is not entitled to any termination payments pursuant to this Agreement.

"Part time employees" means an employee whose rostered hours of work is less than an average of 36.5 hours per week.

"Redundancy" means a situation where the Company proposes to permanently cease operating all or part of its business; and this cessation results in one or more full time or part time employees becoming surplus to the Company's labour requirements. "Redundancy" does not include:

- (a) Termination of employment pursuant to the Company's Disciplinary Policy and Procedures, provided that such termination is not directly related to the Company's requirement to reduce its labour requirements;
- (b) Termination of employment due to retirement;
- (c) Situations where full time or part time employees become surplus to the Company's labour requirements due to industrial action taken by employees which affects the Company's ability to continue normal operations;
- (d) Variations to rosters or shifts (as provided for by parent awards or site agreements) as a result of restructuring or changes in customer demands or operational requirements.

Such roster or shift changes shall be made in consultation with the Union and employees. Where employees are genuinely forced to terminate their employment as a result of such changes, the employee will be entitled to a redundancy benefit pursuant to this Agreement.

"Genuinely forced to terminate" employment does not include financial disadvantage as a result of changed entitlements to shift allowances or overtime;

- (e) Situations where part time or full time employees are not prepared to undertake training or redeployment as a result of technological or operational changes which require such training or redeployment; provided that the proposed training or redeployment is agreed by the Company and the Union to be reasonably within the employee's capability;
- (f) Short term reductions in the Company's labour requirements which can be managed pursuant to Clause 4 of this Agreement; or
- (g) The sale or transfer of some or all of the Company's business where continuity of employment is offered to employees.

"The Company" means Bartter Enterprises and Stegles Foods Products Pty Ltd.

"The Unions" means those Unions participating in the Company's Beresfield site single bargaining unit, and includes the AMIEU; AWU; AMWU; FCU; ETU; NUW; SAWEFA; and TWU.

"Week's pay" means the applicable rate of pay used to calculate the employee's normal weekly rate of pay for the pay period immediately prior to the date of termination. Where employees are engaged on annualised salary agreements, a week's pay is determined by dividing the annual salary by 52.

"Work area" means a discrete functional or geographical part of the Company's operations. The determination of a work area is by reference to the management structure and accountabilities, award/agreement classification and/or union coverage.

3 Consultation

Where the Company is of the view that a redundancy situation is likely to occur, it shall convene a meeting with the relevant Union or Unions. The Company will provide as much relevant information on the circumstances that may lead to redundancies as is commercially prudent. The Company and the Unions will jointly seek alternatives to redundancies.

4 Steps to Avoid Redundancies

Where a redundancy situation appears likely, the Company may seek to minimise the number of such redundancies by:

- reducing the hours worked by casual employees;
- reducing the number of casual employees;
- requiring full time and part time employees to take accrued RDO's; annual and long service level; and
- reducing the hours worked by part time employees.

5 Selection for Redundancy

(a) The ideal outcome of a redundancy situation is one where employees volunteer for termination of employment, and the Company's operational requirements are met by the termination of employment of such volunteers.

(b) In the event that there are insufficient volunteers, or the Company's operational requirements would not be met by the termination of employment of volunteers; the Company will determine who is to become redundant using the following criteria:

- Where possible, the work area where redundancies are required will be the area in which employees are selected for redundancy;
- Long term operational requirements as to employee skills, experience and potential; and
- Considerations of seniority, equity and fairness.

(c) In the event that there are more volunteers for redundancy than required by the Company, the Company will determine who is to become redundant using the following criteria:

- Where possible, the work area where redundancies are required will be the area in which employees are selected for redundancy;
- The Company's medium and long term skill requirements; and

- Other things being equal, those employees with the longest service shall have first preference for redundancy.
- d) Where the relevant Union disagrees with the Company's determination pursuant to this Clause, it is entitled to have the Company's determination reviewed pursuant to Clause 10, of this Agreement, Resolution of Disputes.

6 Notice of Redundancy

- (a) Employees to be made redundant will receive 4 weeks notice of termination of employment.
- (b) During the notice period, the employee will be provided with paid leave to attend interviews with alternative employers and employment agencies, and to attend outplacement support activities, provided that such leave does not cause unreasonable disruption to the Company's operations.
- (c) Where an employee has been provided with written notice, and finds alternative employment during the notice period, the employee will be able to terminate their employment by the provision of 48 hours' notice. All entitlements arising pursuant to this agreement will be paid to the employee.
- (d) Where an employee who has been provided with written notice dies during that notice period, his or her full entitlements pursuant to this Agreement will be paid to that employee's dependants. Where the Company is unable to locate the employee's dependant/s, his or her full entitlements pursuant to this agreement will be paid to the employee's estate.

7 Payment upon Termination of Employment

On the last day of employment, redundant employees will receive a termination payment based on the following formulas:

- (a) 4 weeks' pay.
- (b) a further 4 weeks' pay for each year of service, calculated to completed quarters provided the total payment made pursuant to sub-clauses 7(a) and 7(b) will not exceed 56 weeks' pay.
- (c) accrued annual leave entitlements in accordance with the applicable NSW Legislation and/or Award, and
- (d) All payment made pursuant to this clause will be taxed in accordance with the applicable law. The unions may not make any claim on the Company that is based on any change to the taxation treatment of termination payments.

8 Assistance to Secure Alternative Employment

The Company will provide outplacement support to employees who are to be made redundant. The level of outplacement support will vary depending on the number and requirements of the employees concerned. As a minimum, the Company will, through its preferred outplacement service provider/s, ensure that those employees who need it receive preliminary counselling, assistance in establishing a job search plan, an advise in the preparation of job applications.

DISCIPLINARY POLICY AND PROCEDURES

1. SCOPE

The policy and the procedures contained in it apply to all employees of Bartter Enterprises and its associated companies ("the Group"). Where an industrial award or agreement or contract of employment provides more favourable conditions or procedures than apply under this policy, then the award or agreement will apply. Where an industrial award or agreement or contract of employment provides for lesser conditions or procedures than those applying under this policy, then this policy shall apply.

This policy and the procedures contained in it should be exercised in conjunction with the training and background notes provided by the Group.

1. OBJECTIVE

The objective of this policy is to provide a structured process which ensures that employees of the Group:

- are aware of the standards of performance and behaviour required from them in the course of their employment.
- can have unsatisfactory performance or behaviour identified in a constructive fashion;
- can be subject to disciplinary procedures up to and including termination of employment; and
- to ensure that all activities and procedures associated with these issues are objective and procedurally fair.

2. STATEMENT OF POLICY

The Group is committed to the provision of fair and supportive working environments. The disciplinary procedures contained in this policy are designed to support the achievement of this goal. Any failure to abide by these procedures will in itself be regarded as a severe breach of Group standards.

3. PRINCIPLES

- (a) Disciplinary action pursuant to this policy should be educational in the first instance, and only corrective where educational steps have failed.
- (b) Punitive action should only be taken when remedial steps have failed.
- (c) As far as practical, similar offences in similar circumstances should be treated equitably through the application of similar punitive action.
- (d) Procedural fairness is of paramount importance in ensuring equitable treatment for employees. This will necessitate the use of time and other resources to ensure a satisfactory investigation. This policy therefore provides the ability to suspend employees on full pay whilst any necessary investigation is completed.

4. ACCESS

Given the Objective, Policy Statement and Principles of this policy, this document is public in nature, and should be available to employees on request. Any employee who is to receive any punitive action pursuant to this policy must be provided with a copy of or access to a copy of this document.

PART TWO:

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

1. LEVELS

This policy recognises four levels of disciplinary procedure:

- Counselling
- First Written Warning
- Final Written Warning
- Dismissal

The nature and frequency of the problem will generally determine which level of disciplinary procedure will apply in any individual situation.

2. COUNSELLING

- (a) Counselling is an informal process whereby employees are advised of unsatisfactory work performance. Counselling is an integral part of the management of employees, and should be a two way communication process.

The object of a counselling process is to advise the employee of what standards of work performance, or behaviour are required; to show where the employee is not meeting the required standard; and to ascertain whether there are any requirements for additional training or other resources in order that the employee can meet the required standards.

- (b) A formal record of a counselling process need not be made, however it may be appropriate for a file note to be placed on the employee's file.
- (c) A series of counselling sessions may result in a First Written Warning being issued.

3. FIRST WRITTEN WARNING

- (a) A First Written Warning is a punitive level of the disciplinary procedure.
- (b) A First Written Warning is issued in circumstances where one or more counselling sessions have failed to modify the work performance or behavioural standards as required; or as a first step in the disciplinary procedure where the lapse in performance or behavioural standard is of serious nature.
- (c) Before a First Written Warning is issued, the employee is to be advised that the disciplinary procedure has commenced, and that the process may eventually result in the employee's dismissal; and is to be provided with a copy of this policy. The employee is also to be advised that they are entitled to be accompanied by a union delegate or co-worker.
- (d) The manager or supervisor must explicitly and clearly identify what work performance or behavioural standard is unacceptable, and specify what the required standard is.
- (e) The employee is to be asked if he/she has any comment in regard to the stated problem. Due regard is to be given to the employee's views, and any mitigating circumstances taken into account.

At this stage, the manager or supervisor may elect not to issue a First Written Warning, and revert to a counselling session.

- (f) Once the work performance or behavioural problem has been identified, the manager or supervisor is to ascertain whether or not there is any additional training or other resources that may be appropriate in correct the problem.

- (g) A First Written Warning is to be issued for a specified period of time.

The appropriate period for a First Written Warning to be in force will be determined by the nature of the problem, the employee's record, and the length of time reasonably required to demonstrate improvement.

The First Written Warning should not be in force for more than 6 months.

- (h) The First Written Warning should be recorded as per pro forma document (a) entitled "Record of First Written Warning" in Part Three of this Policy. The employee should be asked to sign the Record of First Written Warning. If the employee refuses to do so, this should be noted on the Record. A copy of the Record of First Written Warning should be issued to the employee.
- (i) At the conclusion of the period of time that the First Written Warning is in force, the employee's performance is to be formally reviewed. At that point, the First Written Warning may be withdrawn, extended, or a Final Written Warning may be issued.

The review of the First Written Warning is to be recorded as per pro forma document (b) entitled "Record of Review – First Written Warning" in Part Three of this Policy.

4. FINAL WRITTEN WARNING

- (a) A Final Written Warning is a punitive level of the disciplinary process.
- (b) A Final Written Warning is issued in circumstances where one or more First Written Warnings have failed to modify the work performance of behavioural standards as require; or as a first step in the disciplinary procedure where the lapse in performance or behavioural standard is of an extremely serious nature.
- (c) In order that a decision to issue a final warning to an employee can be made, it may be appropriate for a detailed investigation to be carried out. In order to facilitate such an investigation, it may be appropriate for the employee concerned to be suspended without loss of normal pay and conditions for the duration of all or some of the investigative process.
- (d) Before a Final Written Warning is issued, the employee is to be advised that the disciplinary procedure has commenced and that the process could result in dismissal, and is to be provided with a copy of this policy. The employee is also to be advised that they are entitled to be accompanied by a union delegate or co-worker.
- (e) The manager or supervisor should have his/her supervisor/manager or the senior manager's nominee present at the final warning meeting.
- (f) The manager or supervisor must explicitly and clearly identify what work performance or behavioural standard is unacceptable, and specify what the required standard is. Where appropriate, reference should be made to any reprimand or previous relevant disciplinary procedure in place.
- (g) The employee is to be asked if he/she has any comment regard to the stated problem. Due regard is to be given to the employee's views, and any mitigating circumstances taken into account.

At this stage, the manager or supervisor may elect not to issue a Final Written Warning, and may issue a First Written Warning or revert to a counselling sessions; or abort the process.

- (h) Once the work performance or behavioural problem has been identified, the manager or supervisor is to ascertain whether or not there is any additional training or other resources that may be appropriate in correcting the problem.
- (i) A Final Written Warning is to be issued for a specified period of time.

The appropriate period for a Final Written Warning to be in force will be determined by the nature of the problem, the employee's record, and the length of time reasonably required to demonstrate improvement.

The Final Written Warning should not be in force for more than 12 months.

- (j) The Final Written Warning should be recorded as per pro forma document (c) entitled "Record of Review – Final Written Warning" in Part Three of this Policy. The employee should be asked to sign the Record of Final Written Warning. If the employee refuses to do so, this should be noted on the Record.

The employee is to receive a letter confirming that a final warning has been issued. The letter should be as per pro forma Document (d) entitled "Letter of Final Written Warning" in Part Three of this Policy. A copy of the Record of Final Written Warning should be attached to the Letter.

- (k) At the conclusion of the period of time that the Final Written Warning is in force, the employee's performance is to be formally reviewed. At that point, the Final Written Warning may be withdrawn, extended, or the employee may be dismissed.

The review of the Final Written Warning should be recorded a per pro forma Document (e) entitled "Record of Review – Final Written Warning" in Part Three of this Policy.

5. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

- (a) Termination of employment is a punitive level of the disciplinary process and the most serious application of this policy.
- (b) In order to dismiss an employee pursuant to this policy, specific authority from a senior manager of the group is required. A senior manager is a director or direct report to a director.
- (c) In order that a decision to dismiss an employee can be made, it may be appropriate for a detailed investigation to be carried out. In order to facilitate such an investigation, it may be appropriate for the employee concerned to be suspended without loss of normal pay and conditions for the duration of some or all of the investigative process.
- (d) An employee may be dismissed in circumstances where one or more final Written Warnings have failed to modify the work performance or behavioural standards as required; or as the first and final step in the disciplinary procedure where the lapse in performance or behavioural standard is of such severity as to warrant immediate dismissal.
- (e) Before an employee is dismissed, the employee is to be advised that the disciplinary procedure has commenced and the group intends to terminate the employment of the employee. The employee is to be provided with a copy of this policy. The employee is also to be advised that they are entitled to be accompanied by a union delegate or co-worker.
- (f) The Dismissal meeting is to be attended by the most senior manager on the site.
- (g) The employee is to be advised that the group intends to terminate the contract of employment and the manager must explicitly and clearly identify what work performance or behavioural standard is unacceptable, and specify the required standard. Where appropriate, reference should be made to any final warning or previous relevant disciplinary procedure in place.
- (h) The employee is to be asked if he/she has any comment in regard to the stated problem. Due regard is to be given to the employee's views and any mitigating circumstances taken into account.

At this stage, the meeting may be adjourned in order further investigation to be carried out. Subject to the nature of the problem, it may be appropriate for the employee to be suspended without loss of normal pay and conditions for the duration of the investigative process.

At this stage, the manager may elect not to dismiss the employee, and may issue a final Written Warning, a First Written Warning, or cease the application of the disciplinary procedure.

- (i) If the decision to dismiss the employee is justified, the employee is to be so advised.
- (j) The Dismissal meeting should be recorded as per pro forma document (f) entitled "Record of Dismissal" in Part Three of this Policy. The employee should be asked to sign the Record of Dismissal. If the employee refuses to do so, this should be noted on the Record.

The employee is to receive a letter confirming that he/she has been dismissed as per pro forma document (g) entitled "Letter of Dismissal" in Part Three of this Policy. A copy of the Record of Dismissal should be attached to the Letter.

- (k) If the employee is to be subject to immediate dismissal, there is no requirement for any notice period to apply.

In all other circumstances, the appropriate pay in lieu of notice should be paid to the employee.
