SCHEDULE A

REDUNDANCY AGREEMENT	25

1. STATUS:

This document shall be known as the Franklins Limited Ingleburn Warehouse Enterprise Agreement 1997, hereinafter called the Agreement, and shall determine the terms and conditions of employment at the Ingleburn warehouse until such time as another Agreement is made between the parties by mutual consent and shall incorporate the Redundancy Agreement, Schedule A, attached hereto.

This agreement shall prevail over the State & Federal General (State) award to the extent of any inconsistency.

2. PARTIES:

The parties to the Agreement shall be the National Union of Workers' Branch, hereinafter called the union, the warehouse employees, hereinafter called the employees, and Franklins Limited, New South Wales, hereinafter called the employer.

3. LIFE OF AGREEMENT:

The Agreement shall commence ^{on 1 November 1997 and} ~~on the date on which the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales, hereinafter called the commission, approves of the Agreement and~~ shall continue until 8 December, 1998. Negotiations for a replacement Agreement shall commence within three months of the nominal ending date of this Agreement.

4. PREAMBLE

By the making of this Agreement the employer, the union and the employees seek mutual benefits in which no party shall be disadvantaged and by an improvement in productivity and efficiency employment may become more secure.

Furthermore the parties have reached agreement by consent and no duress was suffered by any of the parties.

5. AGREEMENT TO BE REGISTERED

The Agreement shall be registered in the commission as an Enterprise Agreement between Franklins Ltd. and the National Union of Workers, New South Wales Branch, to cover the Ingleburn site.

6. ORDINARY HOURS MAY BE WORKED

- (a) The ordinary hours work shall not exceed an average of 36 hours per week, such average hours per week being calculated over an employee's two week cycle with a maximum of five shifts of eight hours to be worked in any one week between 11.00 p.m. Sunday and midnight Saturday.
- (b) Ordinary hours shall be worked continuously except for a 30 minute lunch break which shall not be counted as time worked except when an employee is engaged on an afternoon shift or midnight shift in which case the employee shall be given a paid 30 minute crib break.
- (c) Ordinary hours may be worked:
Monday to Saturday
- (d) Spread of Ordinary Hours:
- (i) Dayshift - 6.00am to 6.00pm Monday to Saturday;
 - (ii) Afternoon shift - 3.00pm to Midnight Monday to Saturday;
 - (iii) Nightshift - 11.00pm to 7.00am Monday to Saturday but the Monday shift may commence at 11.00pm on the Sunday night.
- (c) For the purpose of this clause "Afternoon Shift" means any shift finishing after 6.00 p.m. and at or before midnight and "Night Shift" means any shift finishing subsequent to midnight and at or before 8.00 a.m.

7. LOADINGS AND PENALTY RATES

- (a) Saturday - for working on ordinary time a 60% loading in addition to the ordinary rate for all time worked in the spread of hours. No existing employee at the time of the making of the Agreement shall be forced to work ordinary hours on Saturday.
- (b) Sunday - all work on a Sunday shall be paid at double time the ordinary rate except when nightshift commences work at 11.00pm Sunday to midnight shall be paid at the same rate as applies for the Monday midnight shift.
- (c) Afternoon shift - for working on ordinary time within the spread of hours a 17.5% loading in addition to the ordinary rate for the shift except for work on Saturdays when the Saturday rate as in subclause (a) above shall be added to the shift loading for that day so that the rate for ordinary hours on afternoon shift on a Saturday shall be 167.5%.

- (d) Night Shift - for working on ordinary time within the spread of hours a 27.5% loading in addition to the ordinary rate for the shift except for work on Saturdays when the Saturday rate as in subclause (a) above shall be added to the shift loading for that day so that the rate for working ordinary hours on night shift on a Saturday shall be 187.5%.
- (e) Shift work allowances shall not be decreased by virtue of an employee's absence from work on account of a public holiday or if absent on annual leave, accrued sick leave, bereavement leave or jury service.
- (f) Apart from the above changes, overtime work would remain at the same rate as applies at present.

8. MAXIMUM HOURS ON ORDINARY TIME

- (a) The maximum hours an employee may work on any one day without the payment of overtime shall be 9 provided no existing full-time employee at the time of the making of the Agreement shall be forced to work more than 8 hours on ordinary time without the payment of overtime.
- (b) No existing full-time employee at the time of the making of the Agreement shall be forced to change his/her roster to work more than a 9 day fortnight or to work more than 8 hours on ordinary hours without the payment of overtime.
- (c) Notwithstanding subclauses (a) and (b) above an existing full-time employee at the time of the making of the Agreement can freely elect to change his/her roster in accordance with the Agreement provided the employer also agrees.

9. FOUR DAY WEEK

- (a) The employer may elect to introduce a four (4) day week provided no employee shall work more than 36 hours in any one week without the payment of overtime.
- (b) No existing employee at the time of the making of the Agreement shall be forced to change his/her roster which applied prior to the making of the Agreement to work a four day week.

10. NEW EMPLOYEE

- (a) A new employee, but not a casual employee, engaged by the employer shall be subject to a 12 weeks probationary period from the date of commencement.

- (b) An employee as in subclause (a) above shall be advised of the probationary period at the time of engagement.
- (c) A new employee who continues to remain employed beyond the 12 weeks probationary period shall be regarded as a permanent employee and the date of commencement of the probationary period shall be the date from which all entitlements under this Agreement shall be calculated.
- (d) An employee in the probationary period shall be treated in the same manner as a permanent employee and shall be subject to the disciplinary procedure as would a permanent employee subject to subclause (e) below.
- (e) Prior to becoming a permanent employee, but during the probationary period, a new employee shall have demonstrated an ability to satisfactorily achieve the employer's requirements for quality, attendance, attitude and performance.
- (f) An employee in the probationary period may be dismissed if he/she is found to be seriously misconducting or fails to accept warnings or cautions issued to him/her on the employer's requirements whilst at work.

11. CASUAL EMPLOYEES

- (a) Casual employees to be engaged as required to meet the needs of the business.
- (b) A casual employee shall not be engaged for less than 4 hours on any one start nor more than the maximum ordinary hours on any one day and not more than 36 hours in any one week whilst on ordinary time.
- (c) A casual employee whilst engaged shall be subject to the same conditions of employment as is a full-time employee except:
 - (i) a casual employee shall receive the casual loading in addition to the appropriate rate for all time worked Monday to Saturday whilst on ordinary hours;
 - (ii) a casual employee shall be deemed to have terminated at the conclusion of his/her shift and may be engaged on another shift, provided he/she has had the necessary break between shifts, and his/her statutory entitlements shall be preserved; and
 - (iii) Sunday rates shall be the casual loading in addition to the Sunday penalty.
- (d) The employer shall be entitled to engage casual employees up to 20% of all storemen and packers employed in the warehouse.

- (e) In addition to subclause (d) above, the employer may engage up to a further 10% of casual employees during the following periods:
- (i) November and December inclusive; and
 - (ii) four weeks prior to and four weeks after Easter Sunday; and
 - (iii) one block of four weeks at a time to be nominated between July and September inclusive to co-incide with a major promotion; and
 - (iv) the nominated period must be advised to the site union delegate for day and afternoon shifts with not less than fourteen days notice.
- (f) If, in the period outside of that defined at subclause (e) above, the employer's business is adversely affected for any reason and the engagement of additional casual employees beyond that provided for at subclause (d) above would remove or substantially remove the adverse affects to the employer's business, then:
- (i) the employer shall notify the union delegate for the dayshift and the afternoon shift of the situation; and
 - (ii) the employer and the said delegates shall meet in an attempt to reach agreement to overcome the employer's difficulty at the earliest opportunity; and
 - (iii) the said delegates shall not be unreasonable in any attempt to reach agreement with the employer.
- (g) For purposes of this clause the casual loading shall be 15% for all time worked

12. PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

- (a) The employer may engage permanent part-time employees to assist the efficient operation of the warehouse.
- (b) A part-time employee shall be engaged for not less than 18 hours nor for more than 32 hours in any one week on ordinary time as defined in the Agreement.
- (c) A part-time employee shall receive the same benefits as a full-time employee except that all work related entitlements shall be proportionate to the number of hours for which the employee is engaged divided by 36.
- (d) A part-time employee shall upon engagement be given a roster setting out the days on which the employee is required for work and the starting and finishing time for each day so required.

INGLEBURN WAREHOUSE ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT

- (e) A part-time employee shall not be engaged for less than 4 hours at any one start.
- (f) The employer may change a part-time employee's roster by mutual consent with the employee or by giving to the employee 7 days notice in writing.
- (g) A part-time employee shall be paid at the appropriate overtime rate if the employee is requested to work prior to or beyond his/her normal starting or finishing time.
- (h) A part-time employee normally rostered to work on a day on which a public holiday falls shall be entitled to be paid for that day, without attending to work, as if he/she had worked his/her normal rostered hours.
- (i) The employer shall not change a part-time employee's roster so as to avoid any entitlement which would have accrued to the employee in the Agreement but for the change of roster.
- (j) Nothing in this clause prevents the employer changing the status of a permanent part-time employee to a full-time employee with the agreement of the employee provided the terms and conditions of a full-time employee apply.
- (k) A part-time employee shall not lose any entitlements standing in his/her name when transferring to a full-time employee.
- (l) The employer may transfer a part-time employee to a full-time status for a period not less than 10 consecutive weeks in any one year provided the employee agrees to such transfer and provided further the employee is given in writing the period for which such transfer shall occur.
- (m) A part-time employee who agrees to become a full-time employee for a temporary period shall return to permanent part-time employment at the end of such period subject to the rights of the employer to terminate in the event of misconduct.
- (n) A part-time employee who agrees to become a full-time employee for a temporary period shall be entitled to the same terms and conditions of a full-time employee within the same classification whilst engaged as a full-time employee.
- (o) The employer shall give preference to an existing full-time employee who wishes to become a part-time employee.
- (p) A full-time employee who becomes a part-time employee in line with subclause (o) above shall have all accrued entitlements preserved at the full amount at the time of the move from full-time to part-time and thereafter shall have all future entitlements calculated pro-rata in accordance with the number of hours the employee is engaged.
- (q) The employer shall not engage more than 10% of the employees as part-time employees in a warehouse subject to subclause (r) below.

- (r) In the event the employer genuinely believes that the operational requirements are being affected due to insufficient part-time employees, he shall be entitled to lift the ceiling from 10% to 25% of all warehouse employees provided the employer:
- (i) notifies the union of the operational difficulty; and
 - (ii) shall enter negotiations with the union to obtain the union's agreement to lift the ceiling as in (a) above; and
 - (iii) upon reaching agreement with the union engage further part-time employees; and
 - (iv) the union shall not be unreasonable in attempting to reach agreement with the employer.
- (s) The onus shall be upon the employer to demonstrate that the ceiling on the engagement of part-time employees needs to be lifted to meet the operational requirements.
- (t) If the employer and the union are unable to agree on the need to lift the ceiling on the number of part-time employees and the employer believes he has a genuine case the matter may be referred to the commission to determine the matter in line with the requirements of this clause.
- (u) For purposes of the part-time clause all reference to part-time employees shall be read to mean and shall mean permanent part-time employees.

13. SHORT-TERM (TEMPORARY) EMPLOYEES

- (a) The employer may engage short-term employees to assist in the running of the business.
- (b) Short-term employees shall be entitled to the same conditions as would apply to a permanent employee, except for those matters mentioned in this clause, within the same classification and status.
- (c) A short-term employee shall be engaged for not less than four (4) weeks nor more than seventeen (17) weeks at any one engagement and, subject to subclause (j) below, be engaged as if he/she was a full-time employee.
- (d) A short-term employee shall be notified at the time of engagement for what period of time he/she is being employed.
- (e) At the end of the period of engagement the employee shall terminate and he/she shall not be entitled to a further notice period.
- (f) A short-term employee shall not be subject to a probationary period.

- (g) A short-term employee shall be subject to the disciplinary procedure of this Agreement and may be terminated during his/her engagement for serious misconduct.
- (h) Should the employer not require the short-term employee to complete the period of engagement for which he/she was employed, and the said employee has not misconducted justifying dismissal, then the employer shall pay to the employee the balance of the period for which he/she is not required to complete.
- (i) For purposes of this clause, a short-term employee shall only be engaged during heavy trading periods such as Easter and Christmas (~~November to February~~ to cover the popular annual leave period), school holidays and stock promotions which extend beyond four (4) weeks.
- (j) Notwithstanding anything else written in this clause, ~~should the employer's~~ operational requirements be such that there is a need to engage short term part-time employees, who shall be subject to the conditions applying to a part-time employee, the employer shall:
- (i) advise the employees' representatives of such need;
 - (ii) the employer and the employees' representatives shall enter into negotiations and objectively discuss the employer's reasons;
 - (iii) the employees' representatives shall not unreasonably refuse to agree to the employer request for short-term part-time employees;
 - (iv) for purposes of this subclause the employees' representatives shall mean the recognised union delegate/s and or the union organiser allocated to the warehouse.

14. NEW TECHNOLOGY

- (a) An employee shall not unreasonably refuse to adopt new procedures, systems and processes which are part of the expansion and restructuring undertaken by the employer.
- (b) An employee shall be required to adopt the kronos system to signify starting and finishing time of work.
- (c) The employer shall consult employees at the time new technology, other than that technology for which there is already agreement (or aspects of that agreed technology or technology which is in the process of being implemented) is about to be introduced.

15. CLASSIFICATIONS

(a) The following grades shall constitute the various levels of skills to be recognised:

(c) The wage rate to apply as at subclause (b) above shall be unique and restricted to the Ingleburn warehouse. No other area of the employer's warehouse and distribution locations shall have claim nor access to the full percentage wage increase granted under this Agreement.

18. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES PROCEDURE

(a) Upon a dispute, question or difficulty ('a grievance') arising out of employment, the employee(s) concerned or a union delegate on the employee's behalf, shall notify the supervisor responsible for the area of the warehouse where the grievance has arisen.

(b) At all stages of this procedure, an employee is entitled to be represented in discussions by a union delegate, if the employee so elects.

(c) The supervisor shall attempt to resolve the grievance with the employee and if the employee is represented by a union delegate, with the delegate, within 24 hours of the grievance being raised.

- (d) If the grievance cannot be resolved at this level, the warehouse manager and the union organiser shall be notified and they will attempt together to resolve the grievance within 48 hours of the grievance being first raised.
- (e) If the warehouse manager and the union organiser are unable to resolve the grievance within 48 hours of the grievance being raised, the grievance shall be referred to the distribution manager and to the union secretary and they will together attempt to resolve the grievance without unreasonable delay.
- (f) If the grievance is not resolved, either party may notify the grievance to the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales for resolution.
- (g) While these procedures are being followed the status quo shall remain. "Status quo" means the situation existing immediately prior to the grievance arising. This will not apply in cases where questions of safety arise, (in which case the parties are to agree on what should occur while the disputes procedure is followed), or in cases where employees dispute the company's dismissal of another employee.
- (h) While these procedures are being followed normal work shall continue without any stoppage.
- (i) It is the aim of these procedures to ensure that grievances are resolved at the point where they arise and that all reasonable attempts are made to resolve such grievances as quickly as possible before the grievance is referred to the next stage of the process. No party shall at any stage unreasonably delay attempts to resolve the grievance.

19. DEFINITION OF WORK PERFORMANCE AND EFFICIENCY

Clauses 19 and 20 shall be read to be related in their application to each other and refer to the introduction, application, implementation and absorption of engineered standards.

- (a) The employer shall in co-operation with and in conjunction with the employees and the union actively pursue a new method by which the performance and the efficiency of work is measured in the warehouse operated by the employer.
- (b) The new measure of efficiency and performance of work (hereinafter called work standards) shall become the benchmark by which the warehouse operated by the employer shall be deemed and be seen to be deemed to be operating at an accepted level of productivity.
- (c) Each definable work task within the warehouse operated by the employer shall be subject to a work standards evaluation.

- (d) Work standards shall be geared to improving the efficiency and productivity in the warehouse operated by the employer by eliminating unnecessary time wastage in the performance of work and by the adoption of established industrial engineered methodology as applied in warehousing and distribution.
- (e) No measurement of efficiency and performance of work shall be developed and implemented without regard to the obligation each of the parties have in respect to the Occupational Health and Safety requirements and the National Standard for Manual Handling and the National Code of Practice for Manual Handling.
- (f) No employee shall be treated unfairly in his/her employment, nor shall an employee be dismissed, for mere fact of not achieving the work standards allocated to the work task performed by the employee.

20. OBJECTIVE

The parties commit to improve the work relationship between all employees; to enhance the work conditions of all employees and improve the methods and manner by which work is performed.

- (a) The parties shall co-operate in the introduction and implementation of the new warehouse management system.
- (b) The parties shall engage in the process of training and education, to be provided by the employer, and to assist employees to fully understand the requirements of work standards.
- (c) The parties shall co-operate in the gathering of all relevant data and information to assist in the development of work standards.
- (d) The parties shall co-operatively work to implement work standards and shall provide all reasonable assistance to an employee experiencing difficulty with work standards.
- (e) No party or employee shall be unreasonable in refusing to participate in the education, training, development and implementation of work standards and the new warehouse management system.
- (f) The employer shall establish machinery to monitor and regulate the implementation of the work standards to ensure health and safety considerations are observed and followed.

21. PAYMENT OF WAGES

- (a) Wages shall be paid weekly by Electronic Funds Transfer, hereinafter referred to as EFT.
- (b) Wages shall be paid on Wednesday in every week and shall reflect all time worked in the previous week from Monday to Sunday inclusive.
- (c) All bank and government charges associated with the payment of wages by EFT shall be borne by the employer.
- (d) The employer shall where possible install bank vending machines to facilitate the withdrawal of wages for each employee.
- (e) An employee wishing to withdraw wages from a bank vending machine installed at a warehouse shall do so in non-work time.

22. CHANGING ROSTERS

- (a) The employer shall not change an employee's starting or finishing time unless the employee mutually agrees or in the absence of mutual agreement by the giving of seven (7) day's notice.
- (b) The employer shall not change a roster merely to avoid payment of a public holiday which the employee would have received but for the roster change.

23 MEAL BREAK

- (a) An employee shall be granted not less than thirty minutes nor more than one hour between the hours of 11.00am and 2.00pm for a meal break.
- (b) The employer shall fix the time for the taking of the meal break but once having been fixed shall not be altered without seven days notice.
- (c) An employee required to work overtime of more than two hours shall be granted a tea break of not less than thirty minutes between 5.00pm and 6.30pm.
- (d) An employee required to work on a Saturday as overtime, Sunday or public holiday other than as provided in subclause (e) below, shall be allowed a paid crib break of twenty minutes for each completed five hours worked; the said five hours to be calculated from the time of each commencement of work.

- (e) An employee required to work for a period of eight hours between the hours of 6.00am and 6.00pm on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday may be allowed the usual week day meal break and, in that case, the provisions of subclause (d) of this clause, shall not apply.
- (f) Nothing in this clause shall prevent the employer and an employee may from mutually agreeing to any variation of this clause to meet the circumstances of the work in hand.

24. MEAL BREAK RATES OF PAY

- (a) An employee who works during his/her Meal break shall be paid for at the rate of double time, provided that his/her rate shall not apply to the tea hour if work ceases within one hour after the employee's finishing time.
- (b) An employee who works any portion of his/her meal time shall be paid if the period is less than thirty minutes for thirty minutes and if over thirty minutes for the full meal time.

25. MEAL ALLOWANCE

- (a) An employee who works overtime on any normal working day beyond one hour after the normal ceasing time, shall be paid on such day $7.50 as a meal allowance.
- (b) Payment of the meal allowance shall be paid at the same time as the weekly wage.
- (c) An employee who is notified of the need to work overtime and then is not called upon to work the overtime shall be paid an amount of $7.50.
- (d) Where an employee on afternoon or night shift works overtime for more than one hour prior to the normal commencing time of his/her shift, the employee shall be paid a meal allowance of $7.50.
- (e) A dayshift employee who works overtime prior to 6.00am on any day shall be paid a breakfast allowance of $7.50.
- (f) Should an employee undertake to work overtime nominated by the employer and then fail to work the full period of overtime so nominated he/she shall forfeit from any money owing to him the amount of the meal allowance provided:
 - (i) the above subclause will not apply to an employee on dayshift who is no more than ten (10) minutes late to work the nominated period of overtime prior to his/her normal starting time due to exceptional circumstances that are accepted by the employer as bona fide.

26. CRIB TIME

Where an employee is required to work beyond 9.00pm a break of thirty minutes shall be allowed from 8.30pm and such time shall be counted as time worked.

27. FIRST-AID

- (a) The employer shall provide a properly equipped first-aid room with a fully maintained first-aid kit.
- (b) A qualified first-aid personnel shall be available at all time work is being performed.
- (c) An employee who is a qualified first-aid attendant and who is appointed to carry out the duties of the qualified first-aid attendant shall be paid $13.00 per week in addition to his/her appropriate rate.
- (d) In the absence of the regular first-aid personnel, the employer shall appoint a qualified relief to act as the first-aid attendant until such time as the regular first-aid attendant returns to work.
- (e) An employee appointed to act as the first-aid attendant as in subclause (d) above shall be a proportionate amount of the allowance for each hour the employee performs the duty.
- (f) The first-aid allowance shall be paid for all purposes of the Agreement.

28. MIXED FUNCTIONS

- (a) An employee engaged for two hours or more per day or ten hours or more per week on work for which a higher rate of pay is provided for in the Agreement shall receive the higher rate of pay for the whole day or the whole week as the case may be, whilst so engaged.
- (b) If an employee is engaged for less than two hours on any one day on work for which a higher rate is to be paid then the employee shall be paid the higher rate for all time so worked.
- (c) No employee shall suffer a reduction in wages if temporarily engaged on work other than that on which he/she is regularly employed and for which a lower rate of pay is provided for.

29. OVERTIME

- (a) Overtime shall be paid for at the rate of time and one half for the first two hours and at the rate of double time thereafter.
- (b) An employee required to start work before his/her normal starting or finish work after his/her normal finish time shall be paid at the overtime rate for all time worked before or after the normal starting and finishing time.
- (c) An employee required to work on average more than 36 hours in any one week or more than 72 hours when averaged over two weeks shall be paid at the overtime rate for all such hours worked.
- (d) An employee required to work overtime on a Saturday shall be paid for not less than 4 hours of work whether the employees completes such hours or not, except if the employee elects not to complete the 4 hours of work in which case only the time worked shall be paid.
- (e) An employee on either afternoon shift or midnight shift and who is required to work overtime shall be paid in accordance with subclause (a) above and shall not receive the respective shift loading in addition to the overtime rate.

REDUNDANCY AGREEMENT

FRANKLINS AGREEMENT

A. THE AGREEMENT:

There shall be a redundancy agreement hereinafter called the Redundancy Agreement to cover termination of employees in the event of surplus labour.

B. THE PARTIES:

The parties to the Agreement shall be Franklins Limited, hereinafter called the employer, the National Union of Workers, New South Wales Branch, hereinafter called the union and the warehouse employees engaged by the employer in the state of New South Wales.

C. LIFE OF AGREEMENT:

D. APPLICATION:

- (a) The Agreement shall have application when the termination of an employee results from redundancy.
- (b) In the event of a surplus of labour arising as a result of one of the following circumstances a redundancy situation shall exist and be deemed to exist:
 - (i) the employer has ceased, or intends to cease to carry on business; or

- (ii) the employer has ceased, or intends to cease, to carry on business in the place at which the employees were contracted work; or
- (iii) the requirements of the business for employees to carry out work of a particular kind have ceased or diminished or are expected to cease or diminish; or
- (iv) the requirements of the business for the employees to carry out work of a particular kind, in the place at which they were contracted to work, have ceased or diminished or are expected to cease or diminish.

E. NOTICE PERIOD:

An employee to become redundant shall be given four weeks notice prior to termination.

F. SEVERANCE PAYMENT:

The package shall be as follows:

- (a) Four weeks wage at current rates including any shift or other "all purpose" allowance in lieu of notice.
- (b) Four weeks wage at the rate set out in subclause (a) above for each completed year of employment with a pro-rata payment for each month of employment.
- (c) An employee 45 years of age or older shall receive in addition to those payment as at subclause (b) above an extra 20%.
- (d) Notwithstanding anything else written in this Agreement an employee who volunteers, and is selected, for redundancy shall receive no more than 70 weeks severance pay. However, the union may elect to discuss alternative terms on a ceiling to apply to an employee who is involuntary made redundant.
- (e) A reasonable amount of paid time shall be allowed, up to four hour on each interview, with a total time of 16 hours for the purpose of seeking other employment. The granting of the paid time set out in this paragraph is subject to reasonable notice being given to the employer and evidence of interview being presented by the employee to the employer.

G. LONG SERVICE LEAVE:

An employee who becomes redundant in accordance with this Agreement shall receive in addition to all other payments long service leave entitlements as per the New South Wales Long Service Leave Act 1955.

H. UNUSED SICK LEAVE:

An employee who becomes redundant in accordance with this Agreement and who has untaken sick leave accredited to his/her name shall be paid all such untaken sick leave at the time of termination.

I. ANNUAL LEAVE LOADING:

An employee who becomes redundant in accordance with this Agreement and who has untaken annual leave entitlements owing to him/her shall be paid a loading of 25% on all such untaken annual leave at the time of termination.

J. REFERENCE:

An employee who becomes redundant in accordance with this Agreement shall be issued, if the employee requests same, with a certificate of service which shall state the length of service of the employee, the duties performed by the employee, the skills possessed by the employee and the reason for termination.

K. METHOD OF SELECTION AND PROCEDURE FOR REDUNDANCY:

- (a) The employer shall advise the employees who are subject to this Agreement as soon as possible, when it becomes known to the employer, of the need for redundancy.
- (b) The employer shall notify to the employees the number of positions to become redundant and, if possible, in which classification the surplus of labour exists.
- (c) The employer shall call for volunteers from the classification, or from the area, where redundancies are required.

- (d) If there are more volunteers than there are redundant positions, the employer shall, before deciding on which employees are to be redundant, take the following matters into consideration:
- (i) the length of service of each employee so volunteering;
 - (ii) the age of each employee so volunteering;
 - (iii) the skills level of each employee volunteering for redundancy;
 - (iv) notwithstanding the above sub-paragraphs, if all things are equal the employer shall adopt the last-on first-off guideline to decide which employee shall be redundant.
- (e) Should there be insufficient employees who volunteer to take up redundancy the employer shall take the following matters into consideration:
- (i) the classifications, or area, where redundancies will be necessary;
 - (ii) the skills levels in the respective classifications, or area, where redundancies will be necessary;
 - (iii) the age of each employee in the area likely to be affected by redundancies;
 - (iv) the length of service of each of the employees in the area likely to be affected by redundancies.
- (f) When deciding on which employees should be to be redundant the employer shall act in accordance with subclause (d) and subclause (e) above.
- (g) The employer shall not exercise a decision on redundancy which would victimise one employee in preference to another employee for merely engaging in union activities or other past lawful behaviour in which an employee engaged whilst in paid employment with the employer.

L. RE-ENGAGEMENT:

- (a) An employee who is made redundant and is subsequently re-employed by the employer within 6 months of having being made redundant shall have continuity of employment except that the period for which the employee was absent will not be calculated.
- (b) Subclause (a) above will not apply unless all moneys paid to the said employee at the time of termination is repaid in full to the employer at the time of re-engagement.
- (c) Subclause (a) and subclause (b) above do not apply to an employee who volunteered, and was thus selected, for redundancy.
- (d) A previously redundant employee who is re-engaged by the employer after 6 months from when he/she terminated shall not have continuity of service.

M. SUPERANNUATION:

An employee who becomes redundant in accordance with this Agreement shall receive all superannuation entitlements in accordance with the superannuation trust deed to which the employee was a contributor and in compliance with the Superannuation Guarantee Levy.

N. EMPLOYEE'S ESTATE:

In the event an employee who is serving out a notice period for redundancy deceases during this period, the full benefits of the redundancy entitlements which would have been paid to the employee shall be paid to the estate of the said employee.

O. FINANCIAL COUNSELLING:

The employer shall make available to a redundant employee professional financial counselling during the notice period.
